PRESS RELEASE

Secretary of State Jim Condos Selected as Eastern Region Vice-President, National Association of Secretaries of State

Montpelier, VT – Secretary of State Jim Condos was selected by his peers as the Eastern Region Vice-President and will sit on the Executive Board for the National Association of Secretaries of State (NASS). Secretary Condos was inducted on Sunday at the NASS summer conference.

On Secretary Condos' election to the board, Secretary Hargett (R, Tennessee and NASS President) said: "I am pleased by Secretary Condos' election to the NASS Executive Committee. Together we will be working to preserve our state's heritages and also to protect our state's businesses from burdensome federal regulations. He will be an asset in both of these efforts."

Secretary Condos stated "I am excited to have this opportunity to collaborate with my fellow Secretaries of State on key initiatives affecting elections and voting, state business services, and digital archiving. These are important issues for Vermont and I look forward to representing our great state on the Executive Committee."

NASS is a national organization of Secretaries of State and Lieutenant Governors, which works to promote the exchange of information between states and fosters cooperation in the development of public policy

Jim Condos is Vermont's Secretary of State.
