PRESS RELEASE

Secretary of State Jim Condos Announces Official General Election Results

Montpelier, VT – “Voting is at the very basis of our democracy and every vote counts,” stated Secretary of State Jim Condos.

Secretary Condos chaired the statewide canvassing committee for the General Election at 128 State Street, Montpelier this morning at 10 a.m. This Canvass is to certify the votes for the November 8 General Election as reported to the Secretary of State. The statewide canvassing committee is set by state law and is composed of the Secretary of State and the chair of the state committee of each major political party or his/her designee. Although the Canvass only requires statewide results, the committee is provided town by town vote counts as well as county and statewide total vote counts.

In attendance this morning were Jim Condos, Secretary of State; Conor Casey, designee for Dottie Deans, Democratic Party Chair; Josh Wronski, designee for Emma Mulvaney Stanak, Progressive Party Chair; and Jeff Bartley, designee for David Sunderland, Republican Party Chair.

The total votes counted in the General Election for November 8th was 320,467 out of 471,619 Registered Voters for a 68% voter turnout. New records were set for registered voters and early/absentee voters and fell just short of a record for actual votes cast. Vermont’s official list of winners are:

US President	Hillary Clinton	178,573
US Senator	Patrick Leahy	192,243
US House	Peter Welch	264,414
VT Governor	Phil Scott	166,817
Lt Governor	David Zuckerman	159,738
State Treasurer	Beth Pearce	234,566
Secretary of State	Jim Condos	255,201
Auditor of Accounts	Doug Hoffer	159,695
Attorney General	T J Donovan	200,020

For all of the statewide offices, the canvassing committee members prepared a certificate of election to be used by the official canvassing committee appointed by the general assembly, pursuant to Chapter II, § 47 of the Vermont constitution.
